A Big, Burly Tramp Stops an Express Train on the Louisville and Chicago Road.

With a Hickory Club He Disarms the Messenger, Who Falls by His Own Bullet.

The Baggage Man Shot in the Forehead, and the Safe Robbed of Twelve Hundred Dollars.

A HOOPER BANDIT

Stops an Express Train, Kills the Messenger and Robs the Safe.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The Louisville express on the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railroad, due here at 8 this morning, was stopped near Harrodsburg, Indiana, shortly before midnight by a band of masked robbers. The latter were on horseback and compelled the engineer and firemen to leave their engine. Then entering the express car, the American express messenger was covered with revolvers and refusing to unlock the safe was shot dead. The safe was broken open, but contained $100. The scene of the robbery is among hills and stone quarries and is in a thinly settled part of the country.

ARMED WITH A CLUB.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The Louisville express arrived three hours late, and the passengers and train men say there was no organized band of highwaymen. A man, having the appearance of a tramp, entered the express car from the smoking car, armed with a heavy hickory stick. In the express car were George M. Davis, the express messenger, and Peter Webber, the baggage man. He

STROKED WEBBER ON THE HEAD, felling him, while Davis ran for his revolver. Before he could reach it the man hit him also, and then, taking away his revolver, shot him in the head. The tramp then pulled the bell cord and stopped the train, but first fired at Webber, the bullet striking him in the forehead. Webber succeeded in reaching the smoker and gave the alarm, but the SOLITARY TRAIN ROBBER disappeared in the darkness. The amount stolen is not known, but exceeds $1,200. Davis and Webber are both alive, but the former cannot recover.

Webber says he and Davis were asleep, and both dozes open when the train stopped for water at Harrodsburg. Shortly afterwards he was on the head, and saw Davis and a powerful man in a struggle, finally Davis drew a revolver and the man wrenched it from him, and shot him in the head. Then he rolled the safe, pulled the bell cord and escaped.

AWAKENED BY A BLOW

HUNDRED BY HUNDRED.

Anthony M. Kelly, Transferred From Italy to Austria-Hungary Court.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 30.—The president appointed Anthony M. Kelly, of Richmond, Va., envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Austria and Hungary.

KELLY SAYS HE WILL GO TO ITALY.

WILMINGTON, Dela., April 30.—Mr. Kelly, appointed minister to Italy, is here, and pronounced all the reports that he had declined the Italian mission false. He expects to start for Rome in a few days.

A BAKER'S TRICK.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

PHILADELPHIA, N. S., April 30.—The ever-act storm for a long time set in early last evening, and continued till a late hour. It is feared that vessels on the coast met with disaster.

THE VIOLET SCENE.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 30.—The parade of the Societies Tuesday night and the rumor that they were gathering on the West Side for another demonstration last night induced the holding of the reserve police at the main stations during the progress of the Board of Trade dedication. A special detail of police was at the army.

THE FIRE RECORD.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—A fire caused by a mysterious explosion occurred after 1 o'clock this morning in a building on North Second street, occupied as an installment house by Jacob Stein & Co. The large windows of a saloon and grocery store were blown out, causing a damage of $3,000.

THE MARKETS.

AT CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, April 30.—The commodities galleries of the board of trade hall were crowded to witness the first trading in the new building. The floor also was well filled, and the pits were crowded. Wheat opened two cents higher than at the close Tuesday: June at 93, fell back to 92, rose quickly to 94; and fell back to 93. June corn opened 49; fell back to 48. Provisions are unchanged.

THE TOLEDO MARKET.

TOLEDO, April 30.—Wheat, irregular: No. 2 red, cash, May, 95c; June, 96c; No. 2 soft, $1.07. Corn dull; No. 2 cash, 42c; May and June, 52 bid.

THE CARLETON OPERA COMPANY.

The Chicago papers have spoken in the highest terms of praise of the Carleton Opera company. The reputation of the company is such that no doubt remains but that the operatic work of the company to-morrow and Saturday evening will be appreciated. Mr. Carleton, although a young man, has had a large experience in various phases of the operatic art, from the studied and pretentious effects of grand opera, the strong sentiment and vivid coloring of the brilliant romantic school, down to the light and airy vein of opera bouffe. The party present Offenbach's opera, "The Drum Major's Daughter," to-morrow evening, and "The Mascotte" Saturday evening.

A BAKING POWDER TRICK.

All kinds of schemes and tricks are resorted to by unprincipled persons to obtain unfair advantages over their neighbors. The latest and most diabolical of these that has come to our notice is one by which certain manufacturers of baking powder have sought to prejudice consumers against the use of other brands that have an established reputation as the best and purest in the market, for the purpose of introducing their own. Their method, we are informed, is to heat a can of baking powder of a well-known brand over a lamp or stove, when there is a gas given off having the odor of ammonia, the powder is condemned as being made of ammonia and unfit for use. The prejudice of the masses, respecting are thus excited against the baking powder, submitted to the so-called test, and the grocer who has a quantity of it on hand suffers a serious loss in consequence.

If the intelligent consumer will stop a moment to think, she will readily perceive that this "test," if successful, proves nothing but the superiority of the baking powder tested. The aim of all baking powder makers is to produce an article that shall meet readily, under use, give off its leavening gas. The powder that does this with a moderate heat, at the same time evolving the largest quantity, is scientifically the best.

There is probably not an article prepared for food that cannot be manipulated to prove that something is wrong about it, and when a person goes into a kitchen or before a housekeeper who is not to be presumed to understand chemical relations, and performs an experiment of the simplest character, it is not difficult to impress one that something awful is the matter. As to baking powder, we could suggest a dozen tests that would be as ridiculous in giving a fair idea of their relative merits to an uneducated mind as those here mentioned.

The true domestic value of a baking powder consists in its purity, wholesomeness and leavening power. It is only the chemist, with his chemical appliances, who can determine these qualities, scientifically and exactly. Aside from this, the best test for a baking powder is to try it in making bread, and see which makes the most and the best. In this practical test all the established brands have been put, and householders have very generally made up their minds which they prefer, and the tracksters will find ultimately that a brand that has been a household favorite for years will not be displaced by reason of any tricks which they may show.

It is said that Sam F. Morse, formerly editor of THE SENTINEL, but now on the Chicago Times editorial staff, is negotiating in concert with other parties, for the purchase of a prosperous daily paper at Duluth, Minn.

Russia Says the Question of Peace or War Must be Settled in that Time or Not at All.

General Komaroff Replies to Lumsden, and Says Afghan Arrogance Provoked Battle.

General Grant Enjoys a Nine Hour Sleep and Denotes a General Improvement.

AFGHAN ARROGANCE

Led to the Occupation of Peshawar, Says Komaroff.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 30.—The Official Messenger to-day publishes a telegram from General Komaroff in reply to the dispatch of Lumsden denying the accuracy of Komaroff's report. Komaroff admits that he received orders previous to the battle not to occupy Peshawar, but says that the other officers on the frontier had not been advised of the receipt of such an order. He reiterates the former assertion regarding the audacity and arrogance of the Afghans, and other events which led up to the battle.

MARUCHAK.

LONDON, April 30.—In the House of Lords this afternoon Lord Granville announced that telegrams had been received from Lumsden which contradicted the reports of the Russian occupation of Maruchak.

WAR IN A FEW DAYS.

MOSCOW, April 30.—The Gazette says if England wishes to avoid war she must evacuate Port Hamilton, at the entrance of the sea of Japan, otherwise Russia will be obliged to occupy Herat. The Gazette also says it believes the question of peace or war must be settled within a few days.

NINE HOURS.

General Grant Has the Best Night of Rest Yet.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

NEW YORK, April 30.—About 10 o'clock last night General Grant slept, and the sleep continued unbroken until 3 o'clock this morning, when he awoke but slept again until 8. The patient enjoyed nearly if not quite nine hours sleep and only five minims of morphia were given.

DOUGLASS ON THE CANCER.

Dr. Douglass was asked this morning if the cancer at the base of the tongue had not improved with the general betterment of the patient and if the cancerous lump was an open sore. In replying he said he could not affirm there was an improvement of the cancer. It was difficult to tell about that, but the cancerous lump was

NOT AN OPEN SORE.

The darting pains that have their seat in the cancerous lump on the tongue still continued, but were not so frequent nor so severe as they had been. In response to a further question the doctor could not say that the infrequent and lessened severity of these pains indicated an improved condition of the cancer. There was in every way an improved condition, aside from the cancer, relative to which the doctor declined to speak further than as stated.

HELD OFF.

The Western Union Wires Excluded From the Chicago Exchange.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, April 30.—Upon taking possession of its new hall this morning the managers declined to allow the Western Union to put in its wires. As a result there is no ticker service at all to-day and the brokers offices in this city, bucket shops and open boards of trade alike have no quotations. The telegraph company appears to have been taken completely by surprise, as the tickers had been placed in all the new offices and the warning only came after business had fairly been entered upon.

Board of Trade Building Dedicated

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, April 29.—The new building of the board of trade, erected at an expenditure of $2,000,000, was formally dedicated this forenoon before an audience of about 5,000. Nearly every exchange in the union was represented. Following the address of Emory Storrs, President Horrick, of the New York chamber of commerce, made a short speech. Hon. Edward Kemple, representative of New England board; Stanford White, of the Liverpool exchange; Charles B. Stone, of San Francisco; Hugh M. Lellan, of Montreal; ex-Governor Standford, of St. Louis; George A. Pillsbury, of Minneapolis; Colonel Sidney D. Maxwell, of Cincinnati; Colonel George S. Kinney, of Nashville; Wilson Welles, of Philadelphia; and George H. Peck, of Baltimore, were in turn called upon and made short speeches.

Directors Re-elected.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, Ill., April 29.—At the annual meeting of the stock holders of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy railroad to-day the old board of directors was re-elected. No other business was transacted.

The Pennsylvania Scourge.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

WILKESBARRE, April 29.—The cold weather that has prevailed in this vicinity since Sunday last has been a blessing to the fever-stricken people at Plymouth. The epidemic is fast subsiding. No deaths have been reported since yesterday, and many persons ill with fever are reported to be rapidly improving.

WORD TO BUSINESS MEN, PROPERTY HOLDERS AND TAXPAYERS.

At the approaching city election a new mayor and almost a new council is to be chosen. No matter how worthy and capable these gentlemen may be; it would be a calamity to place the city in entirely new hands without some experienced or guiding spirit. Wright W. Rockhill seeks a re-election. He has made the best clerk the people of Fort Wayne ever had. He needs no certificate to prove his fitness for the place, that at best only pays enough for a man to live on. Rockhill was born here and has lived here all his life. He is not attacking anyone. He is too clean for that. Neither is he an importation. He knows the business of the city, helped to put it out of debt, helped to wipe out the floating orders, and place Fort Wayne on a cash basis. In the next two years half the city debt will have to be refunded. Do the people want a stranger to handle this business? Do the people who pay tax want their burdens doubled? Mr. Rockhill is too good a man to lose. He can aid the new council and the mayor, and familiarize them with the business that so interests every business man, property holder and taxpayer. THE SENTINEL has no fear that any person can come within 3,000 votes of Mr. Rockhill, but a word as to his worth is due so good a public servant.

PRIMARY VOTING PLACES.

The places of voting at the democratic primary Saturday afternoon are as follows:

A CONFERENCE OF BAPTISTS.

Statistics Submitted Showing the General Condition of the Church of Indiana—Future Work Mapped Out.

The conference of Baptist pastors and members, called for the purpose of considering the condition of the church throughout the state, began Tuesday afternoon in the First Baptist church, at Indianapolis. About fifty pastors and sixty visiting members were present. Dr. Cox, of Spencer, was elected chairman, and Rev. G. H. Elgin, editor of the Indiana Baptist, secretary. Reports from the various associations of the state regarding the general work were read.

Rev. Mr. Elgin delivered an address on the general outlook, giving some very interesting figures. Dividing the state into four sections, he said by a line drawn north and south, and another east and west, it was found that nearly half of the church was located in the south-west corner of the state, viz., 199 churches with 15,243 members. In the northeast quarter were seventy-eight churches with 7,792 members. In the northwest quarter were eighty churches with 7,371 members, and in the southeast quarter were 106 members, making a total of 491 churches and 39,981 members. While the southern half of the state contained nearly two-thirds of the churches and members, it held but fourteen churches where there was regular preaching, but in the northern half there were twenty-four churches with weekly preaching.

The Baptist convention Tuesday afternoon, appointed the following committee to examine into the condition of the church in the state and apply remedies where needed as will tend to encourage proper and active church work: The Revs. A. Blackburn, Lafayette; J. K. Harvard, Indiana; R. Jeffrey, Indianapolis; W. C. Johnson, Vincennes, and John Kenower, Huntington. The convention found that there was a remarkable destitution of pastors; that some of the churches are losing in both members and power; that in many instances there is a suspension of gospel discipline. The remedies are to be found in the cultivation of a more earnest evangelizing spirit; in organizing the young converts, and in a closer sympathy between churches and pastors.

Rum, Rheumatism and Rebellion.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—While attempting to arrest a rebellious drunken man recently a policeman was pushed into the canal and was only rescued after receiving a severe ducking. Be prepared. There is hardly a family in which accidents of some kind are not of frequent occurrence, and to give immediate and sure relief from the consequent pain; every household should have Pond's Extract at hand. Its wonderful healing power for all kinds of cuts, bruises, swellings, sprains, soreness, pains, aches, etc., has been satisfactorily attested by numerous testimonials during the last forty years. It will be found invaluable, especially when medical aid cannot be quickly obtained. Go to your druggist and ask for Pond's Extract. Take no substitute, but have the genuine article.

"All's well that ends well." Mr. Hugh Fleming, of Holyoke, Mass., thought he was never going to get well. Chronic indigestion was what was the matter with him. He had tried so many remedies without avail that he began to lose hope. For it ended well in his case, and he is now a healthy man.

The use of Iodoform or mercuric in the treatment of catarrh—whether in the form of suppositories or ointment—should be avoided, as they are both injurious and dangerous. Iodoform is easily detected by its offensive odor. The only reliable catarrh remedy on the market to-day is Ely's Cream Balm, being free from all poisonous drugs. It has cured thousands of chronic and acute cases, where all other remedies have failed. A particle is applied into each nostril; no pain; agreeable to use. Price fifty cents; of druggist.

"Pretty Wives, Lovely daughters and noble men," My farm lies in a rather low and miserable situation, and My wife: Was a very pretty blonde! Twenty years ago, became Sallow! Hollow-eyed! Withered and aged! Before her time, from Malarial vapors, though she made no particular complaint, not being of the grumpy kind, yet causing me great uneasiness.

A short time ago I purchased your remedy for one of the children, who had a very severe attack of biliousness, and it occurred to me that the remedy might help my wife, as I found that our little girl, upon recovery had Lost! Her sallowness, and looked as free as a new blown daisy. Well the story is soon told. My wife, to-day, has gained her old-time beauty with compound interest, and is now as handsome a matron (if I do say it myself) as can be found in this country, which is noted for pretty women. And I have only Hop Bitters to thank for it.

The dear creature just looked over my shoulder, and says "I can flatter equal to the days of our courtship," and that reminds me there might be more pretty wives if my brother farmers would do as I have done.

Hoping you may long be spared to do good, I thankfully remain,

CATARRH

Diseases Tending to Consumption, Symptoms, Effects, Treatment and Cure.

Dr. Nicholls

Robinson House,

Fort Wayne, Ind.

Among the list of chronic diseases which affect the human frame Catarrh is the most prevalent, most offensive and most productive of discomfort, and of a variety of distressing and dangerous complications.

The earliest and most prominent symptom is a discharge from the head, varying in its nature in different cases, and even in the same individuals at different times. It may be a thin, colorless, orid fluid or a glopy, stretch like substance. Generally, however, it is a thick purulent or mucous-purulent matter, either ash color, greenish yellow or a deep green (not occasionally streaked or flecked with blood). Scarcely an offensive is the discharge in many cases that the patients express their belief that their heads are one mass of corruption.

"HAWKING"

Most of the discharge passes backward, either dropping into the throat, or collecting as a tough, viscid, tenacious globule, behind and above the soft palate in the passage between the throat and the head. Its lodgment embarrasses respiration, and creates a constant and almost insupportable desire to relieve the discomfort by drawing the offensive substance into the throat by a loud inspiration through the nose, so as then to be able to expect by a disagreeable "hawking."

OFFENSIVE BREATH.

In the more advanced stages the discharges are generally of an offensive odor, causing great annoyance to one's friends and to the patient himself, while his sense of smell remains. This annoyance from the odor becomes almost beyond endurance, more especially when the disease assumes the form of ozema, and the delicate bones of the nose become diseased.

DEFORMITY OF THE NOSE

In neglected cases, when the bones of the nose become diseased, not only is the offensiveness of the breath greatly increased, but there is a liability to serious personal deformities, among which is the flattening of the nose.

FATAL EFFECTS OF CATARRH

The swallowing of catarrhal secretions deranges the functions of the stomach, causing indigestion, loss of appetite and health. Debility, deafness, paleness, lassitude, headache and disturbance of mind soon follow. In some instances the mental affections is one of irritability, the patient being unduly annoyed by all the little perplexities of life. In others the prominent feeling is that of melancholy and depression of spirits, when the invalid can see no hope in the future for himself or his affairs.

CONSUMPTION AND DEATH

Catarrh affections unchecked by treatment are prone to extend by continuity of surface along the natural air passages to the substance of the lungs, thus causing consumption and death. In this connection it should also be remembered that the air which enters the lungs of a catarrhal patient is, every breath of it, poisoned by exhalations from the foul secretions of the diseased surface. By such air the blood cannot be properly purified and made fit to impart healthy vigor in its circulating circuit to all and every part of the animal mechanism. One would suppose that this consideration alone would be sufficient to induce every person thus afflicted to make early application for relief.

TREATMENT AND CURE.

By the system of treatment which Dr. Nicholls has adopted and pursued for years with uniform success, a complete and permanent cure of this repulsive disorder can be effected. This he has demonstrated in thousands of cases, representing the disease in every form and all its various stages of development. His applications are made to reach the diseased parts in the most direct and positive positive manner, instantaneously penetrating every cell and cavity of the head communicating with the nostrils, and subjecting every portion of the membrane to the healing action of the remedy employed, with the most beneficial results, and without causing the least pain or unpleasant sensation.

So effective is this plan of medication that a single application is generally productive of decided relief. The affected cavities are thoroughly cleansed from morbid mucus matter, the offensive smell is removed, and relief from other troublesome symptoms is almost immediately experienced. The discharge soon diminishes, irritation is allayed, the inflammation subsides, ulcerations are made to heal and finally a radical and permanent cure is effected.

All Diseases of the Eye and Ear successfully treated by Dr. Nicholls. A permanent cure guaranteed in all chronic diseases.
